Unique Approach

Stuart Maue is unique in our approach. We combine a full-time staff of experienced attorneys and accountants with state-of-the-art technology to provide our clients with the most comprehensive results and exceptional customer service. Our professionals perform a line-by-line analysis of invoices, a process that is far more accurate, complete, and reliable than computerized searches. Our clients enjoy substantial savings and gain vital insights into their legal spend. Drawing upon the power of our data warehouse and advanced analytics, we customize management reports for clients and use the resulting metrics to compare law firms and vendors, project costs going forward, and formulate an optimal allocation of resources.
