

Stuart Maue: Vendor Invoice Review Services

Overview

Stuart Maue's vendor cost consulting staff is comprised of experienced auditors and accountants. Our process, which combines skilled individuals with the latest advances in computer technology, makes Stuart Maue the leader in the cost management industry.

With our vendor services, Stuart Maue identifies and quantifies overpayments and under-deductions made to suppliers and third party service providers. We provide a detailed report supported by exhibits which outline potential recoveries and recommendations that improve both the bottom line and your business processes.

In addition to identifying recoverable costs, we help clients look toward the future by providing recommendations on how to improve procurement and payment procedures. Stuart Maue professionals perform a comprehensive review of contractual agreements with vendors, purchase orders, and procurement and payment methods.

Benefits of Vendor Invoice Review

Bottom Line Savings

Overpayments and under-deductions directly affect a company's bottom line, both in terms of recovery and identifying billing issues in future invoices.

Addresses Time-Sensitivity of Recoveries

Time is of the essence when addressing potential overpayments and under-deductions. Identifying, validating, and retrieving recoveries becomes increasingly difficult as time passes.

Improved Relationship with Vendors

Stuart Maue is aware that many clients value relationships with vendors, and we strive to avoid conflict in that relationship by providing a clear, objective analysis of vendor invoices and related contracts.

Vendor Audits Reveal Industry Best Practices

Our auditors are experts in their field and have performed hundreds of audits. Stuart Maue brings that wealth of knowledge of industry best practices to every client.
